2. I inquired of [REDACTED] as to the reasons why they did not send the [REDACTED] letters" over to us anymore. He said that this was an oversight and that they would resume this practice immediately.

3. Shef Edwards and I met with Lyman Kirkpatrick and [REDACTED] to discuss the Inspector General's survey of the Office of Security which it is estimated will take about four months. It was agreed that the team would start on Monday and would consist of [REDACTED] with Brad being in charge during Herman's absence. It was also agreed that Shef could designate any specific areas or problems that he cared to and discuss them only with Herman.

4. I talked to [REDACTED] about the assignment of new people to [REDACTED] and he apologized for not advising me that the FE Division had no objection to issuing the instructions which he, Matt Baird, [REDACTED] and I had discussed a few weeks ago.

5. Shef Edwards telephoned to say that he wanted to recommend that we make no changes in the guard system [REDACTED]. I told him that I realized the desirability in many respects in continuing as is, but that I did not want to approve of this recommendation without having a full consideration of the other possibilities.

6. I talked to Ed Saunders again about the case of [REDACTED] who will be tried on a drunken driving charge soon. I told him that unless I heard to the contrary I would assume that [REDACTED] if convicted, would be separated from the Agency.
